

3-string partial capo chord chart for Worship Guitarists

A partial capo is one that covers some of the guitar strings, providing new options for chord voicings. This chord chart is for a 3-string partial capo placed on the 2nd fret from the nut (or a full capo) to cover the A-D-G strings. This forms an Esus4 chord when strummed open.

The Capo Company

Newport

3-string Partial Capo

Light weight - low profile

E5
(no 3rd)
Replaces E chord

E5/G#
Replaces E/G# chord and often G#m too!

E5/B
Replaces E/B chord

F#m11
You have to reach over your partial capo, or mute the low E string
Replaces F#m & F#m7 chords

Aadd9
Replaces A chord

Aadd9/C#
Replaces A/C# chord

Aadd9/E
Replaces A/E chord

Bsus4
Replaces B chord

Badd11/D#
Replaces B/D# chord

C#m7
Replaces C#m chord

C#m7
(no 5th)
Alternate replacement to C#m chord

G#m<sup>b</sup>13
Replaces G#m chord

This covers the main chords in the key of E, but there are certainly more variations! Experiment with different voicings, expand your playing songwriting skills, and most of all

HAVE FUN!

Now try playing This Is Our God (Hillsong), Open The Eyes Of My Heart (Paul Baloche) or 10,000 Reasons (Matt Redman, changed to the key of E) with a partial capo!

